

13 November on  EastLink

Volunteer at this year's Ride for Home cycle event

Unique mass participation sporting event on the completely closed EastLink

Target 10,000 event participants

- Local families in the 15km fun ride.
- Male and female adults in the 35km and 75km ride – serious and recreational cyclists.
- Event ambassadors include Simon Gerrans, Shane Wakelin, Alan Brough and Brodie Harper.

Unique volunteering opportunity for your team or organisation

- You can participate in this unique event even if you don't know how to ride a bike!
- Volunteer roles include route marshals, start-finish marshals, site set-up and pack-down crews, timing device collectors and information guides
- Every volunteer will receive full event training and position description, official event t-shirt and cap, lunch and refreshments and the satisfaction of volunteering to help Melbourne's homeless
- Any organisation which provides a minimum of 15 volunteers can elect to receive the event training session at their corporate headquarters

Associate with a good cause

- Fundraising event to help Hanover Welfare Services provide homelessness services
- On any given night over 20,000 Victorians are homeless
- A quarter of those who are homeless are families with children

Get involved in a major high quality event

- Safest cycling event in metropolitan Melbourne

Low price

- $5,000 ex GST – this is a contribution to help offset some of the event operating costs

Event starts 6am – finishes 1pm
